

JOURNAL OF THE NATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR CAREER EDUCATION AND COUNSELLING

Call for Papers: Issue 28 for publication in May 2012

Theme: Innovation in theory and practice

Papers are invited on the theme of innovation in theory and practice. This issue is inspired by the Audrey Collin's forthcoming NICEC Seminar (24/11/11). The seminar will offer the opportunity to outline the assumptions made by systems theory and consider the benefits for practice and how it might be applied.

Other articles are sought related to the broad theme of innovation in theory and practice in career education and counselling.

The deadline for final submissions is 31/1/2012.

Informal enquiries about the suitability of articles are welcome. Copies of the style guidelines are also available. Please email the issue editor Phil McCash: p.t.mccash@warwick.ac.uk

Enquiries about attending the Seminar on 24/11/11 can be sent to Lyn Barham: lynbarham@gmail.com
